cameras are exposed. If you can send a few of these plates of which you may have duplicates, kindly send them to my New Haven address where I will divide the series according to the needs of the two museums.

Comte Begouen and the Baron Blanc have departed. Capitan and Peyrony have gone to Teyjat. Breuil and Obermaier are still here. I regret very much that you could not have been present at our reunion in Les Eyzies. Prof. and Mrs. Osborn are in Paris and will sail on the 17th.

With very pleasant memories of our sojourn in the "Midi" and with many thanks you rendered us while we were there, I am

Very sincerely yours
