August 3rd 1912.

My dear Professor Cartailhac

Our tour in Dordogne of four days with your young and very able Colleague l'Abbé Breuil – was most successful and memorable. You saw everything deliberately and to great advantage – He was most courteous and interesting. You made Bouyer, our base and saw all the principal Caverns and depots. Font de Gaume and Combarelles are wonderful – the last impressed me more than anything I could have imagined as a complete representation of the fauna.

Again, I am deeply indebted to you and shall always look back upon this splendid work in France and follow it with the deepest sympathy

Tomorrow we join Dr Obermaier at Santander. He was detained there by Baron Blanc of Italy.
Mrs Osborn joins me in Quidest? Regards to you - Believe me,
always Faithfully yours
