My dear Sir:

It is most gratifying to me to learn that you propose to print a handsome introduction of my book "British Barrons" in Matruan, which I cannot but regard as a great compliment.
I have no objection to your doing so or to the use of as many of the woodcuts as you think it desirable to introduce.

The book is published by the Delegates of the Clarendon Press of the University of Oxford, and the wood blocks belong to them. It will, therefore, be necessary to have their permission, and I have written to Oxford to obtain that. When I receive an answer

Swift at once let you know the result of my application, which I have little doubt will be a favourable one.

I wish when I was lately in Paris I had had the good fortune to see you, but I think you were not then in Paris.

Believe me

Yours sincerely
W Greenwell
