Ramsgate,
Sept. 13, 1851,

Sir,

I read with much interest in 'the Times' of Sept 14th a brief résumé of your remarks on the ancient monuments of the Balearic Islands, addressed on the previous day to the Congress of Orientalists.

I am desirous of obtaining a fuller account of what you said, but don't know where to apply except by writing to yourself.

Perhaps you would have the kindness also to inform me,

927791/1/2

if you have published any work on the ~~of~~ subject, & where I could procure it,

I may add, as some excuse for intruding on you, that I can't get at information as easily as others, having been for several years unable to leave my couch. Before my illness began, I spent some time in Majorca & the history & its monuments etc interests me, & you will be doing ~~an act of~~ a kind act by putting me in the way of learning something of your ~~valuable~~ valuable researches. Believe me, your faithful servant.

George Teeling.
