2nd April, 1914.

Sir,

I hasten to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 30th March, and beg to assure you that the invitation to you to deliver the Huxley Memorial Lecture, 1915, was sent with a full knowledge of the special domain of prehistoric Archaeology with which you have been so long and so honourably associated.

We should welcome an address on the Aurignacian period and I venture to mention to you the fact that the last Huxley Memorial Lecture by Professor Sollas, F.R.S. dealt with the Paviland Cave. The connection of your special studies with the work of Huxley is certainly in my judgement sufficiently close and sufficiently important for me to rejoice that you are able to offer us a paper, and I shall report your acceptance to my Council at the earliest possible date.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

T. C. Hodgson
Honorary Secretary.

Professor Emile Cartailhac,
Musée d'Histoire Naturelle,
Toulouse.
