Toulouse*

My dear Professor Cartailhac:

Not being sure at which hotel we would be stopping in Toulouse, I ~~having~~ have taken the liberty of having my letters forwarded to your care. Owing to the absence of Count Begouen from St. Giron, my arrival in Toulouse ^{will be delayed} several days perhaps even a week. One of the expected letters will be a "lettre recommandée," and I suppose the post-office will care for it until my arrival.

Trusting that this delay will not cause you inconvenience, I am with best wishes

Very sincerely yours

George Grant MacCurdy
