

March 3rd 1912

ELMBANK,
LARGS,
AYRSHIRE.

Dear M. Cartailhac

I duly received your interesting coloured drawings of Attamira just in time to exhibit them to an audience of 400 or 500 people and your name was greatly cheered.

I would have written sooner but was tired after the delivery of each lecture. I have now returned home (I have given up my residence in Edinburgh and live entirely in the country) and take the opportunity of

ELMBANK

LARGE

YARSHIRE

Thanking you for all your kindness and good wishes for the success of the course of lectures. They were a great success the audience kept up all the time. The news papers took notice of each lecture. I send you a cutting from the "Scotsman" news paper of what the reporter has published of my 5th lecture.

the last on the Anthropological section.

The lectures will be published in due course when I shall have the pleasure of sending you a copy.

Yours very truly
Robert Munro