Dear Professor Cartailhac,

May I introduce to you a colleague of mine, Dr. Charles Singer, lecturer on the History of Medicine at the University of London, who is about to take a holiday in the South of France and who hopes to see something of the caves in the neighbourhood of Toulouse. Although not professionally an anthropologist he has done a good deal of work with Zammit in Malta. He is extremely interested in mediaeval manuscripts and mediaeval things generally as is his wife Mrs. Singer who accompanies him, so it would be kind if you would draw his attention to the best mediaeval things in Toulouse and the neighbourhood.

I was delighted to hear from Robert Solomon how well you were last autumn and hope you still are.

With best regards in which my wife joins.

Yours sincerely,

C. Seligman
