My dear Sir,

I am desirous of seeing some of the Caves of Southern France, especially those with mural paintings, but do not know how to proceed. From some expressions used by Prof. M. Boule I imagined that you might be able to give me some information which would assist me in my efforts, and in that case I should return to England via Toulouse.

I am staying here for a few days longer and if you could write me a few words in the way of guidance I should regard it as a great favour.

Believe me, My dear Sir,

Yours very truly

Professor in the University of Oxford.
