

173, Woodstock Road,
Oxford.

16 April 1910

My dear Sir,

I am greatly obliged by your kind letter with its full information & invaluable introductions.

I found it awaiting me on my return from Tübingen, some affairs of importance having caused me to leave Germany earlier than I had intended.

But my visit is only postponed. I look forward to making use of your letter in July, at the beginning of the Long Vacation.

With warm thanks for your kindness

Believe me, my dear Sir

Very sincerely yours

W. J. Sollas.

Mr. Barrett has told me of your kind intention to lecture from our anthropological School in April & informed me that you would be the guest of Mr. Bell. I wrote to ask whether it would be possible to prolong your stay for a day or two as my guest. There are many things I should like to show you & I should especially like to introduce you to the domestic circle of University College.