His Majesty King EDWARD VII, Doctor of Civil Law, Christ Church, Visitor of University College, Oriel College, and of Christ Church, died at Buckingham Palace on Friday, May 6, 1910, at 11.45 P.M., in the Sixty-ninth year of His Age and Tenth of His Reign.

I. University Acts.

I. CONVOCATION.

Proclamation of His Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth.

In a CONVOCATION holden in the Divinity School on Tuesday, May 10, at Twelve o'clock—

The SENIOR PROCTOR recited the official Document from the Privy Council, being the Warrant for Proclaiming HIS MAJESTY.

Mr. VICE-CHANCELLOR recited the Proclamation.

The first verse of the National Anthem was sung.

Mr. VICE-CHANCELLOR gave the signal for acclamation at the accession of KING GEORGE.

Note.—At the conclusion of Convocation, Mr. Vice-Chancellor, followed by the Doctors, Proctors, and Members of Convocation, in due rank and order, proceeded through the great door opposite Hertford College, down the street past the Radcliffe Camera, and entered St. Mary's Church by the north door, reaching the Church about a Quarter-past Twelve. The Persons forming the Procession waited in the Church till the City Authorities began to move, and then passed through by the south-east door to a platform erected in the churchyard. Shortly after, the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriff of the City came on foot, and stopped immediately before the spot where the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors were stationed, who, together with all the members of the University, remained uncovered, while the Town Clerk read the Proclamation. All having joined in acclamation at the accession of King George, and the Vice-Chancellor and Mayor having exchanged greeting, the City Procession moved on, and the members of the University retired through St. Mary's Church, the bells ringing, and the Organist playing “God Save the King.”

The Warrant and the Proclamation were issued as Supplements to the last GAZETTE.
