ANTHROPOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON,

Washington, D. C., October 1, 1894.

Dear Sir and Colleague:-

The Anthropological Society of Washington, D. C. requests you, as a member and friend, to lend your interest to the preparation and procuration of papers suitable for presentation before the Society during the coming season. For the purpose of making a list and arranging the order of presentation, it is desirable that these should be forwarded with as little delay as possible, and a return-card is sent herewith. The time to be occupied in reading the paper should be stated; also, when it will be ready. The result of your labor is requested even if negative. The first meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 6. Meetings will be held bi-weekly thereafter.

THOMAS WILSON,

for Committee on Communications.
