THE BRITISH ACADEMY

Dear Sir

I trust you have received the brochures of the Academy from the publishers; also the list of Fellows which I have sent you.

In the name of the President & Council I beg leave to say that we shall be very gratified to receive some Communication from you for the Proceedings of the Academy. I have asked Professor Baskett to write further to you on the subject. I am quite sure that a Contribution from you will be welcomed by all your colleagues of the Academy, will prove to be a valued addition to that branch of learning which you have so greatly enriched -

With cordial regards

I am, dear Sir,
Yours very truly
I. Gollancz
